Waste MisManagement

by Dan Doyle
February 10 - 26

Pec Playhouse is honored to present and produce the World Premiere of a play written by retired Winnebago County judge Dan Doyle. This who-dun-it murder has lots of laughs, suspense, twists, and turns along the way.

Our Annual High School Production

Murder's In The Heir

By Billy St. John

April 20 - 29

Almost every character in this hilarious mystery has the weapon, opportunity and motive to commit the unseen murder. And it's up to you, the audience, to decide who actually did it, utilizing secret ballots. Come join the fun!

To Kill A Mockingbird

Book by Harper Lee

Adapted by Christopher Sergel

June 15 - July 1

This theatrical adaptation of Harper Lee's beloved novel tells the story of a lawyer defending a black man charged with taking advantage of a white girl. The play explores the irrationality of adult attitudes toward race and class in the Deep South of the 1930s.

Almost Heaven: Songs of John Denver

Concept by Harold Thau

Orchestration and Vocal Arrangements by Jeff Waxman

September 14 - 30

The show pays tribute to the life and music of John Denver. His music is juxtaposed with interviews, fan letters and stories to weave the spell-binding story of his life and the turbulent times of our nation.

Greetings

by Tom Dudzick

November 16 - December 2

A delightful comedy about a young man who brings home his Jewish atheist fiancée to meet his very Catholic parents on Christmas Eve. With the inevitable family explosion comes an out-of-left-field miracle that propels the family into a wild exploration of love, religion, personal truth and the nature of earthly reality.
