Pec Playhouse Theatre 2014 Season

The Foreigner

Comedy
by Larry Shue

February 7 – 23

The scene is a fishing lodge in rural Georgia often visited by "Froggy" LeSeuer, a British demolition expert who runs training sessions at a nearby army base. This time "Froggy" has brought along a friend, a pathologically shy young man named Charlie who is overcome with fear at the thought of making conversation with strangers.

Love, Death and the Prom

High School Production
by Jon Jory

Apr. 25 – May 5

This hard-hitting series of mini-plays touches on the lives, loves, and struggles of high school students. Moments ranging from poignant to funny make this a fascinating evening of theatre. Warning: One topic is the aftermath of a suicide. May not be suitable for all audiences.

Dirty Rotten Scoundrels

Musical
Music by David Yazbek
Book by Jeffrey Lane
July 11 – 27

This fun-filled musical comedy centers on two con men living on the French Riviera. They attempt to work together only to find that this small French town isn't big enough for the two of them. A hilarious battle ensues that will keep the audience laughing and guessing to the end!

Abundance

Drama
by Beth Henley
Sept. 19 – Oct. 5

Funny and deeply touching, Abundance follows the adventures of Bess and Macon, two mail-order brides, on their twenty-five year journey across the American frontier and revels in their lifelong friendship – a bond strong enough to withstand a kidnapping, outrageous catastrophes, and even husbands.

Fruitcakes

Christmas Show
by Julian Wiles
Nov. 21 – Dec. 7

Mix together a batch of fruitcakes, three dozen Christmas trees, 10,000 outdoor Christmas lights, a chicken pox epidemic, two southern spinsters, an estranged old man, a lost cat named Tutti Frutti and a Christmas hog named Buster and you've got the recipe for a fun-filled and touching evening of holiday cheer.
